

declarations of her on the Thursday previous to the day on which she was killed stating that she had contracted a Venereal disease from the prisoner & that he had got it from Laura Foster and that she intended to have her revenge or that she intended to kill her or have her killed were proved by a witness - There was evidence of a secret & private conference between the prisoner and Ann Milton on Thursday morning on the ridge between Ann Milton and her Mother The Canteen in which the liquor had been brought to her house by the messenger on Thursday was found by a witness on Friday morning under a tree where Ann Milton told her it was there was a very small quantity of liquor left in the Canteen - It was in evidence to the jury that the prisoner said he had received the Canteen of liquor by a witness who saw him that evening on his way up the river - There was a map of circumstantial testimony in evidence before the jury tending to show the prisoners connection with the alleged homicide all this evidence was submitted to the jury under a charge from the Court to which no objection was taken Among other witnesses Mrs Scott was examined who swears that she saw Laura Foster on Friday morning riding on her father's horse with a bundle of clothes travelling in the direction of the place called the Water place That Laura as she was passing told witness she was going to the Water Place It was objected to by the prisoner that the witness should state the declarations of Laura Foster
